

In the event of sudden loss of cabin pressure, flight attendants secure Paul Mann's oxygen mask first.

PAUL MANN, 50, investigator

- 10. The Sammys winner couldn't make bail.
- 9. It's foretold in the book of Revelation. I am the beast.
- 8. Everyone knows that an appearance on the cover of SN&R leads to some real exposure, like the cover of Sactown Magazine.
- 7. Unlike Mayor Kevin Johnson (who is—little known fact—also in the book of Revelation), I don't demand appearance fees, a personal makeup artist (non-union per the new bride, natch) or crystal bowls filled with unwrapped Starburst Fruit Chews, minus the yucky lemon flavors.
- 6. Awesome show-and-tell for my daughter—Daddy's famous, Boo-bear!
- 5. For that entire week, I can skip the Zoloft. Woo-hoo!
- 4. I asked Joey and she agrees with my life coach that it will help balance my chakras. Namaste.
- 3. It's a no-brainer—SN&R subscriptions will increase 10-fold. Huh? You're free? What are you, idiots?
- 2. It will fulfill Annie Leibovitz's lifelong quest to photograph moi, and isn't that what it's really all about, giving to others (see also No. 6 above)? That's just the kind of guy I am.
- 1. Wallpaper for my man cave, of course.

For that entire week I can skip the Zoloft. Woo-hoo!,,
